

La Via Coffee Table | Spanish Beige Marble

A study in contrast- refined surface, raw edge, and grounded form. Constructed from individually laid Spanish Marble tiles, the surface reveals subtle tonal shifts and natural variation across each piece. The tiled composition creates a quiet patchwork of stone-considered, structured, and inherently unique.

The honed top is defined by a chiselled edge, exposing the raw character of the material. This contrast between smooth and fractured surfaces brings depth without excess-controlled yet expressive.
