

La Via Dining Table | Spanish Beige Marble

A study in contrast- refined surface, raw edge, and grounded form. Constructed from individually laid Spanish Marble tiles, the table reveals a subtle patchwork of tone and texture across its surface. Each piece carries natural variation, creating depth without disrupting the clarity of the form. The honed tabletop is framed by a chiseled edge, left intentionally raw to expose the natural character of the stone. This contrast between smooth and fractured surfaces defines the piece, balancing precision with irregularity.
